Building Levies

An additional building levy of $716.00 will apply to the eldest sibling in the family attending a Sydney Catholic Systemic School.

Payments:

- School Fees are invoiced annually at the beginning of each school year in February.
- Parents/Carers have the option when enrolling to nominate their preferred payment method either by term (over the first 3 terms), month or fortnight. If a nomination is not made, payments will be set to the default monthly method.
- All fees must be paid in full by the due date shown on the fee statement.

Fee Assistance

Parents / Carers who need support to meet the cost of educating their child may be eligible for a bursary by application through the school office. Support may be provided via a:

1. Financial Hardship Bursary
2. Indigenous Bursary
3. Refugee Bursary
4. Foster Child Bursary

* Note:

Additional fees may apply for specific events or optional programs such as band or representative sports. Schools will endeavour to keep these costs to a minimum. The fees above are not applicable for full fee paying overseas/visa students. Please contact the school office for further information.
